INMATES FINED.

The conduct of the inmates of a house on a b. Fairfax street as well as that of visitors to the place has recently caused formal complaint to the authorities. There was considerable disorder in the house early last Saturday night, and when Lieutenant Battle entered he found a row in progress between men and women and heard language of the vilest nature. A crowd had gathered about the door and there was considerable excitement in the vicinity. The lieutenant had all the inmates cited to appear before the Police Court this morning. Two men and one woman responded, but one of the female inmates, said to be the main cause of the uproar, was conspicuous by her absence. A warrant was issued for her immediate arrest, and the two men and woman who were in the dock were fined $5 each. Justice Oatton said his attention having been called to the house he was determined to do his part by imposing fines provided in such cases.

After the above was in type the misadventure was found by the police and she was later arraigned before Justice Oatton who imposed the same fine as had levied on the others. Not having the necessary wherewithal, she was committed to jail. A little girl who lived in the house will be sent to some charitable institution, and an elderly woman, mother of the woman who had been fined, was taken in charge. She was told she could leave the city or go to the work house. She announced her intention of adopting the former course. This woman has resided in Alexandria for some time and she has become acquainted with many people who speed their time and means in easing the burdens of others.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.

Captain Thomas E. Coffin, a native of Virginia, but of recent years a resident of Florida, died Sunday of Bright's disease, after an illness of several weeks, at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. John B. Wheat, in Richmond. Captain Coffin was born at Alexandria in 1847. At the age of fifteen he enlisted in the Confederate army as a member of the Sixth Virginia Regiment, Mahone's Brigade, and had worked his way to a captaincy at the close of the war. After the war Captain Coffin went into the employ of the Pullman Company, and after faithful service of many years as conductor on one of the southern railroads, was promoted to the position of train in the company's office at Jacksonville, which he held at the time of his death.

NEW LIGHTS.

Anticipating the lighting of the new Ragged Point light station and fog signal on the Potomac river, the light-house board gives notice that it is to be in service about March 10. It is to be a fourth-order lighting white over 10 seconds, illuminating the entire horizon 14 feet above the water on the point of the shoal making off from Ragged Point, Va. The light should be visible 12 miles in clear weather, the observer's eye 15 feet above the water. The structure supporting the light is located in eight feet of water and consists of a white hexagonal building on brown piles, with a brown roof, black lantern and green window shutters.

On the same date there will be established in the structure a bell to be struck by machinery during thick or foggy weather a double blow every 10 seconds.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Oatton presiding]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Two white men and a woman, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5. Ophelia Johnson, colored, charged with disposing of a watch belonging to Robert Smith, colored, was dismissed, he promising to return the article.

Martha Myers, a colored girl, charged with stealing clothing from a house in which she had been employed, was held.

Edward Grinnell, colored, charged with non-support of his family, was released upon promising to give his wife stated amount weekly.

SOUTHERN BAZAAR.

The Southern Bazaar opened at the Masonic Temple in Washington last night for the benefit of the Confederate Memorial Home. Many persons, including several Alexandrians, attended the opening last night. Every evening there will be addresses and a musical programme. Last evening Maj. Holmes Conrad was the speaker. Col. James Gordon, retiring senator from Mississippi, will be the guest of honor this evening. Mrs. McSherry, president of the U. D. C., has the bazaar in charge. Luncheon will be served daily from 2 to 5 o'clock.

FREAKS OF LIGHTNING.

Considerable excitement was caused in the Potomac railroad yards, north of this city, late yesterday evening during the heavy rain which was falling at that time. A ball of lightning shot from the clouds like a comet and alighting on the electric light wire ran along for some distance and then made a sudden dive down a post into the ground. An explosion followed and the lights were extinguished. Later the wires were repaired and the yards illuminated again.

THE WEATHER.

The warm and cloudy weather of yesterday was accompanied by light rain-falls. At the close of the day there were heavy downpours, accompanied by lightning and thunder. A dense fog spread over the city and river which continued throughout the night. Conditions early this morning had undergone but little change. Fog was still hanging over the river, and impeding navigation. The steamer Southland, from Norfolk, due at 6:30 did not arrive until about 9:30 o'clock.

The Regal Shoe for men in all the new laces can be had of John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

ACCIDENT TO THE NEWPORT NEWS.

The steamer Newport News, Captain J. M. Phillips, which left this port for Norfolk with freight and passengers, early last night was smashed into the British tramp steamer, Lord Roberts of the York Spit today. Only the water tight compartments saved the Washington boat, for a hole as big as a trolley car was smashed in her forward port bow by the heavy iron prow of the Lord Roberts. The damage was between the first and second compartments and the forward part of the hold filled with water, but the bulkheads held and the Newport News not only was kept afloat but was able to limp into port under her own steam.

There was a panic among the passengers, but it was short-lived as the officers and crew of the vessel, reassured the frightened men women and children. No one was hurt.

The collision was due to the dense fog that has shrouded the entire Atlantic coast for 48 hours. It was only because both boats were going at a slow rate of speed that the Newport News was not cut in two. The Lord Roberts was heavily laden and her heavy bulk and sharp iron prow cut into the lighter passenger steamer like a knife going through cheese. Fortunately her captain saw that the collision was impending and had her engines reversed before the crash came so that her momentum was very slow.

The damage to the Newport News is believed to be such that she will have to be docked for repairs.

PERSONAL.

Police Commissioner Zoro Hill will this week leave for Europe. While in Europe he will visit Oberammergau, where he will witness the production of the Passion Play.

Miss Ida B. Carver has returned from a visit to relatives in Alexandria and Washington. Mr. John L. Mayre, of Alexandria, was a visitor here Sunday.

—(Fredericksburg Star.)

Miss May Hough, of Alexandria, is spending a few days with Miss Sue Dabney.

—(Charlottesville Progress.)

Mr. Gordon Phillips, of this city, is to the Episcopal Eye and Ear Hospital in Washington, where he is undergoing treatment for his eyes.

PLAN OF THE SOUTHERN.

In connection with the recently announced plans of the Southern Railway to give wider publicity to the industrial and agricultural growth of the territory traversed by its lines, announcement is made that this work will be done under the direction of the assistant to the president, J. S. B. Thompson, with offices in Atlanta, and that Laurens Foreman, at present city editor of the Atlanta Constitution, has been appointed to take charge of the work. The section on the part of the Southern railway comes largely as a part of its policy to increase its efforts for the betterment and improvement of general conditions along the system and particularly in the South.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT.

Tonight the basketball fans of Alexandria will have a chance to witness one of the fastest games seen here this season.

A picked team of the Alexandria Basketball League will play a team picked from the Military League, of Washington. The line-up of the Alexandrians will be as follows: Toomey and Entwistle, forwards; Hayes, center; Cookrell, Schwarzman, or Gaines, guards; Rice, the star center of the Georgetown University five, will play with the Washingtonians.

TRIAL FLIGHTS OF MONOPLANE.

Trial flights of a monoplane built by the National Aircraft Construction Company, in Washington, will be held in Alexandria next week under the direction of the designer, Charles B. Nichols. The new machine is of original design, and Mr. Nichols, who was formerly with Prof. S. P. Langley, is confident of its success.

L. O. T. M.

The regular review of the Alexandria Five of the L. O. T. M. will be held at Odd Fellows' Hall, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as there will be drill practice. At the last review Lady Bladen, record keeper was presented with a handsome chocolate set, by the five, as a token of appreciation. Lady Quigley, commander, was also given two handsome set of needles. The gifts were a great surprise to the ladies and were much appreciated.

INTERMENT.

The remains of Miss Julia Custis Lee, who died Sunday morning at the residence of her nephew, Dr. E. L. Morgan, 2315 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Washington, were brought here this afternoon for burial. The interment took place in Ivy Hill Cemetery, beside the grave of her father, Col. Richard Bland Lee. Rev. Dr. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, officiated. Services were held at 11:30 o'clock at Dr. Morgan's residence in Washington.

A. L. I.

There was a well-attended meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry last night. Captain F. L. Slaymaker, who has spent several weeks in Alabama, was present. After the drill the company decided to give an excursion to Marshall Hall on June 7. Orders were read from Richmond for the annual spring inspection on April 11. The inspection will be conducted by Captain Fuller, of the Twelfth U. S. Infantry.

NEW OFFICE.

Mr. L. H. Machen, who is now associated with Mr. Charles T. Jesse, of Caroline county, will shortly occupy an office in the building on the northeast corner of King and Washington streets, the entrance to be on the latter thoroughfare. Many years ago the late Christopher Neale had his office a few doors further north.

Lynnhaven Bay Oysters.

The Neck Clams.

Brill's Celebrated Single Fried

The Opera House Cafe.

ELKS.

No business of general importance was transacted by Alexandria Lodge of Elks at their meeting last night.

The annual election of officers will be held next Monday night and will be followed by a social session, for which an interesting programme is being arranged. Rapid progress is being made on the new home. It is stated that the members of the order expect to be installed in their new quarters by May 1.

CHARTER GRANTED.

A charter has been granted to the Columbia Cafe Company. The main office will be in Alexandria and Mr. Leo P. Harlow will be the local attorney.

The object of the company will be the operation of hotels, restaurants, etc. The maximum capital will be $60,000.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

March came in like a lamb, but a wet one.

Weather like the present will soon bring fish into the river.

Yesterday, the last day of the last winter month, brought a regular thunder storm.

Friendship Lodge, No. 28, Daughters of Liberty, held a meeting last night in Pythian Hall. One candidate was initiated.

A history of Methodism in Alexandria written by Rev. O. D. Ball, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will be published shortly.

The barge Arandel, in tow of the tugboat Dixie, arrived today from Baltimore with fertilizer to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company.

The barge Hercules, which was loaded with railroad ties by the Virginia Timber Company at W. A. Smoot & Co's wharf, left today for New York.

The trailer of an electric train jumped the track at King and Royal streets between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning, delaying operations on the road for some time.

Several strangers were in this city yesterday looking for a suitable site for an ice plant which, they said, they contemplated establishing here in a short time.

Revel services were opened last night at the M. E. Church South by Rev. O. D. Ball. The services will be held every evening for a period of two weeks, except Saturday evenings, beginning at 7:45.

The Missionary Society of Trinity M. E. Sunday school is holding a rummage sale at the corner of Wilkes and Royal streets. The sale will continue during the entire week.

FLOODS.

Glens Falls, N. Y., March 1.—A heavy warm rain that fell last night followed Sunday's downpour has made conditions here the most serious of years. The upper Hudson and tributary streams are flooded and because of the unprecedented amount of snow in the Adirondacks which is melting rapidly it is feared that the river will reach the highest flood record of 1869. Great damage was done at that time and threatened loss of property in even greater volume because of the more extensive improvements along the river. Mill men are making heroic efforts to combat the rising water.

Utica, N. Y., March 1.—The Mohawk valley, east of this city, is in desperate straits today due to the unprecedented flood raging in that section. The Mohawk river, which began rising Sunday morning following a thaw and rain storm, is far beyond its banks today, causing appalling property damages, heavy loss among live stock and driving hundreds of persons from their homes. The flood is the worst in the history of the valley.

Killed in Collision.

Galesburg, Ill., March 1.—Three persons were killed and 15 injured here today when two motor cars met in a head on collision. One of the cars was completely wrecked.

John Godwin one of the best known politicians in Delaware, was taken to Wilmington workhouse today to practically begin a two-years' sentence at the elections.

The elections committee of the Maryland House of Delegates today reported favorably the bill introduced a couple of weeks ago providing for woman's suffrage for Baltimore city. A loud much blaring by the large crowd in the galleries the bill was tabled indefinitely in the committee of the whole.

KILLED BY SNOW SLIDES.

Twenty-four persons are known to be dead as a consequence of snowslides Sunday and yesterday at Mace, in the region of northern Idaho.

The rescuers have dug frantically for many hours. Every available man and boy has been pressed into service. Mace is on a creek, and the mountains rise high on either side of the town. The main body of the avalanche, which started from the top of Cutler mountain, passed beyond the town and striking the opposite slope with terrific force, rushed up to the opposite mountain side. The canyon is filled to a depth of 45 feet. The damage to Mace was done by a fragment of the main slide, which carried a construction train from the track as it plunged into the ravine. As it rolled up the other side it demolished the houses in its path and stopped a short distance beyond the home of Superintendent I. M. Pascol, of the Standard mine. The boarding house of the Standard mine, where 300 miners were sleeping, was missed by 120 feet.

Thirty-five Italians, sleeping in an outfit car on the Northern Pacific siding, who were swept away with their car in the bottom of the canyon, used the tools in their car to dig themselves out.

Every available man within 10 miles of Mace was rushed at midnight to the little mining town. A bitter wind was blowing and bonfires were built, torches lighted and the wood in crashed houses used for fuel to keep the workers warm.

Snowslides are reported from widely separated points in the whole Oeur d'Alene district. At Murray, 22 miles north of Wallace, one slide smashed the surface plat of the Paragon mine, inflicting damage in the amount of $5,000.

From the same locality comes news of injury to the Bear Top mine. At Malien, eight miles east of Wallace, the roof of the opera house collapsed with the weight of the snow while the building was filled with people. All escaped injury.

COUNCILMAN COX GUILTY.

In Newport News yesterday the jury in the Corporation Court returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Councilman Ernest O. Cox, charged with violating the election law, and imposed a fine of $200. The evidence showed that Cox, while a candidate for the democratic nomination for constable last June, gave J. P. Frelay a note for $75, in consideration of which Frelay withdrew from the race against Cox and supported the latter. Cox was nominated. A second indictment, charging Cox with promising money to another candidate to withdraw from the race, is now pending against Cox.

Conditions in Persia.

Tehran, March 1.—As the result of the resignation today of Premier Sipahdar Khan and Minister of the Interior Sardarsaad, it is believed Russia will be forced to show her hand and either withdraw her troops from Persia or assume formal control of the country.

The resignations came as a result of the czar's disregard of the recent ultimatum sent him by Persia for the withdrawal of his soldiers. The resigned ministers have warned the government that Russia's failure to heed the ultimatum is tantamount to a declaration that she intends to control Persia and that they are unwilling to hold office longer if the Persian government remains subservient to the czar.

The shah has so far been unable to find suitable persons to take the vacated posts, as the leading politicians are demanding that the government demand guarantees of Russia that the latter has so far shown no indication of granting. Everywhere the fear is expressed that unless the powers intervene, Russia will complete her "grab" of Persia under the guise of "preserving order" among the warring factions.

Coleman Furnishes Bail.

Boston, March 1.—Securities for the $50,000 bail demanded in the case of George W. Coleman, the bank clerk admits looting the National City Bank of Cambridge, of approximately $200,000 have been obtained by Coleman's father and uncle and the defaulting clerk will be released this afternoon if the securities are accepted by United States Commissioner Hayes.

Victims of Snow Slides.

Wallace, Idaho, March 1.—One thousand men and boys, with huge bonfires built from the debris of wrecked cottages, worked frantically all night at Mace, Barke, and Murray, where houses were destroyed and men, women and children entombed by giant snow and earth slides. A number of persons have been rescued alive and there is still hope for others. Early today 24 bodies had been recovered and the work was being pressed with the utmost vigor. It is very perilous, as is shown by the entombing of rescue parties at both Mace and Barke.

Death of a Minister.

Baltimore, Md., March 1.—Rev. Benjamin Parker Tunt, pastor of the First Methodist Protestant Church of Washington, D. C. died at the Union Protestant Infirmary in this city today, after having undergone an operation. He had been in ill health for 17 months and entered the hospital several weeks ago. Dr. Tunt was born in 1851 and was a native of Maryland.

DROPPED SHELL.

Isadore Messinger, the 17-year-old son of H. Messinger, of Norfolk, yesterday met with a serious accident. He was engaged in shelling a one-pound shell, a relic of the Spanish American war, when it fell from his hands to the floor. The impact caused the shell to explode with a crash that was heard several blocks away, and when the Messinger family entered the room to investigate they were horrified to find the young man lying on the floor writhing in pain and in a semi-conscious condition. The interior of the room was demolished by the force of the explosion.

It was first thought that young Messinger was fatally injured. It is possible that lockjaw will develop from the wounds, say physicians. One of the young man's toes is torn away, and the living portions of the shell were imbedded in the fleshy parts of his legs. That he was not fatally injured is due to the fact that the shell exploded under the table upon which the boy was sitting. The heavy top deflected the bits of shell.
